

David Addinall

David is a recently retired Practice Manager who has spent the last 13 years managing a practice in the Selby area of North Yorkshire. During this time he has worked on a number of projects with the local Health Authority, Primary Care Trusts (PCTs) and Primary Care Groups (PCGs) as well as chairing the York and Selby Practice Managers group. Prior to his work as a Practice Manager, David spent 23 years in a variety of senior management positions with an ICI subsidiary in York. He initially worked in Finance before moving to Management Services Development and finally becoming Commercial Services Manager.

Since retirement, David has undertaken consultancy work in management structure and recruiting Practice Managers for local GP practices. He retains his interest in financial management and continues to produce the annual financial and management accounts for his previous practice as well as presenting the finance module for the Certificate in Practice Management.

David has also managed an annual Quality and Outcomes Framework (QOF) review of 26 practices in the Harrogate area and currently manages the Selby and District Practice Based Commissioning Group.

David works with fresh Medical to deliver training in financial management.
