

Pam Powell

Pam is a chartered accountant, who, since leaving practice, has specialised in training professionals in the field of finance. Her specific areas of expertise are in financial reporting and related subjects.

Her clients include accountancy practices of all sizes, banks, financial institutions, professional bodies, solicitors, and a wide range of corporates. She has written and presented courses on all aspects of financial reporting (UK and IFRS), analysis of financial statements and charities' reporting.

She is the principal contributing author to Croner's Financial Accounting: Essential Practice and has recently been involved in recording programmes for a subscription-based business TV channel.

Pam works with fresh Legal providing specialist training in finance.
